

Rubric for Insurance Project

Total points = 110 points

Items to consider	Score	20-16 points	15-9 points	8 – 2 points	0 points
List of terms and definitions example: deductible, premium		Included all words on list of terms and definitions are clear and written in own words	Included some of the terms from list, definitions copied from resource	A few terms are included, definitions skimpy	No terms given, no definitions
Explanation of how each situation is different for stages in the life cycle		An excellent explanation of situations, shows a clear understanding of the process	Good explanation of situations, show some understanding of the process	Fair explanation of situations, shows little understanding of the process	Poor or no explanation given, shows little or no understanding of the process
Two estimates or quotes for each of five major types of insurance:		Two estimates for each of the 5 major types are given	Less than two quotes for all 5 major types are given	Only one quote for each of 5 major types	Less than one quote for each of 5 major types
Personal Plan		Student outlined a detailed plan for their current needs	Student has a short plan for their current needs	Student has an incomplete plan for current needs	Student did not include a personal plan for current needs
Product		Product is easy to read and understand	Product is somewhat hard to read and understand	Product is messy, hard to read and understand	Student did not present a product
Resources				Resource list included = 5 points	No resource list
Assignment Completed		On time + 5 points	1 day late Half credit	2 days late No credit	Not completed No credit
Total Score					